Dear Brother Chalk:

Your letter of November 21st re. mine of a previous date was very much appreciated. Especially was I glad to learn of your interests in my COMMENTS ON THE REVELATION. Your busy schedule sounds a bit like mine; however, I have long known that if one wants to get anything done, he should get a busy person for the work. Therefore, I am continuing to depend upon you for some much needed assistance.

You will also be glad to know that I have discussed the matter with Bro. B. C. Goodpasture again; and found him still interested in talking with you about it. He has a lot of confidence in you and your appraisal and recommendation of any writings; and while he still didn't intimate that he would take the book on under any consideration, he did indicate a knowledge of the need for a better work on the Revelation than is now being produced and promoted by the brotherhood and an interest in seeing that a better one should be made available. He is waiting for your discussion of the matter with him.

I am wondering if your schedule, in January, will be such that you could arrange a meeting with him during the Lectureship at David Lipscomb College, say on Tuesday, Jan. 21st at which time I would be glad to meet with either you or the two of you for further arrangements for a revision and publishing of the book? If you could see and discuss the work with him at any time, he is anxious to know your evaluation of it. If that or any other date which you could meet me during the Lipscomb Lectures would be convenient, please let me know as soon as you can set such a schedule and I will be glad to meet with you.

I hope that you have had a pleasant and successful year in all of your many endeavors and that the new year may hold for you still greater challenges and opportunities as you are so well qualified to fulfill. My new story SO TURNS THE TIDE is finished and nearly ready for publication.

With continued respect and personal esteem, I am,

Fraternally yours,

W. S. Thompson
