HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

Mar. 6, 1964

Dear Bro Chalk: I'm still after John Herrin to get him to pay us here at school.

Will you please send me the name of a lawyer there in Cookeville to whom I can send the note for him to collect. He won't pay us any other way it seems.

Bro. Dixon cited you in his lecture here about knowing how to collect a library for a preacher. I wished then that all of our students would turn out as you have done, but Herrin hasn't done that.

Everything here is doing well,

I thank you, your old teacher & bro. in Christ
W.C. Hall.
