Dear Brother Chalk:

Your much appreciated letter of October 1, following our telephone conversation has been received. I thoroughly understand why it is not wise this semester for you to enroll in the Harding Extension Program in Murfreesboro. I am grateful for your offer to pay the tuition of someone else, if necessary for the materialization of the program. I am delighted to say that such is not essential. The response in Murfreesboro has been great! We are teaching eight hours there. I should say we are teaching far more than eight, but a person can take eight. The program is so good that the other Monday they teased me by saying, "We may make Memphis an extension of Murfreesboro".

I am definitely looking forward to your being with us the second semester which will begin February 17 and in the meanwhile, you have my prayers and very best wishes.

Cordially and fraternally yours,

W. B. West, Jr.
Dean
