Dear John,

Someone gave me the enclosed "tract" on the condition that I would turn it over to you. I think it is much too angry to be taken very seriously and I am afraid that I did not become as inflamed as the giver wanted me to. But I give it to you to fulfill the promise that I made. Do with it as you wish. You need not return it to me.

I have another bit of writing that one of my brethren has done which he wants you and me to read and tear to pieces. I find it very interesting and generally acceptable and compatible with the scriptures. There are some thoughts, however, that have some germs of truth - yet some either off-color or seldom-heard thoughts. When you get back, maybe we can have some time to discuss it. You will need to have read it pretty thoroughly first, however.

Yours in Christ,

Thomas Cook
