Dear John Allen:

Your letter of July 9 addressed to Brother Wallace has come to my attention. I want to personally thank you for it and for the contributions totaling $510 which were enclosed.

We are deeply grateful for your continued cooperation with us in our work. Words are inadequate to fully express our appreciation for you.

Fraternally,
