Dear brother Chalk;

We trust you and your family are well, busy and happy.

In our correspondence concerning the dates of our meeting for this Spring, we have failed to receive a definite date. We wonder if perhaps you had sent the dates to us and during our moving into our new building it had been misplaced.

Will you please let us know by return mail as we need to make plans for the meeting

Yours in Christian love,

Gerald L. Blume
