Mr. John Allen Chalk
Broad Street Church of Christ

Dear John Allen:

Thank you very much for recommending me for the work in Owensboro, Kentucky. They contacted me and seemed very anxious to have me come and consider the work. We decided, however, to accept the work in Augusta, Georgia.

We have been here one month, and the work seems that it is going to be pleasant and profitable. Our records thus far have been 278 in Bible Study, 310 in Worship, and 204 on Wednesday Night. Four have been baptized and one restored during our first month.

I have recommended you for a meeting here and hope they will ask you in the near future, as I feel that your preaching would do us a lot of good.

Give you family our regards.

In Christian Love,

Charles A. Lucas
