Mr. John A. Chalk
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

I would appreciate it very much if you would send me three of your best evangelistic sermon outlines (full-length) by Jan. 1, 1964 to be included in a book of evangelistic outlines by some of our most effective evangelists from the standpoint of responses. Others included are such men as Willard Collins, Jimmy Allen, C. E. McGaughey, W. A. Bradfield, and Marshall Keeble.

This is a follow-up to the survey I made a few years ago.

Although I will not get a penny out of this book (in fact it will cost me a few dollars and quite a bit of time), I am glad to serve as its editor because it will be the best (I think) evangelistic outline book yet in print.

Preferable numeral sequence: I, A, 1, a, 1).

Do not hesitate to include any vital illustrations, etc. in your outlines. An outline of two or even three typewritten 8" by 11" pages is not too long.

Thank you for your time and efforts. And, I wish for you continued success in moving people to Christ and in all of your other work for Him.

Sincerely yours,

Bill Flatt
