Dear Bro Chalk:

It was certainly a pleasure to see you again Sunday March 22, at Manchester Tenn. We are looking forward to seeing you at Blue Ridge in June.

Bro Gene Carrell minister here at 4025 College Ave. is going to Michigan in June. He has been there five years. We have a new building, wonderful elders and a growing congregation of about 250 members. A nice home is owned by the church and working conditions are very good. Terre Haute is a city of about 80,000 population. There are three peaceful congregations, also two colored congregations. I am sure you have a knowledge of many fine ministers, you might know some one who is looking for a fine place to work. The salary is very good, above average.

Brother Manwaring, one of our elders asked me to write you, thinking you might give us some help in locating a well qualified minister.

Any information will be much appreciated.

Mrs Hudson and I sure enjoyed the services at Manchester Mar 22. We were returning from Winter Haven, Fla.

Yours In Christian Love
B. D. Hudson
