Broad St. Church of Christ

Dear Brother Chalk:

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for your work with us this summer. We are so glad you and your family could come our way for this short period. I know I speak for myself, the elders and the whole congregation. Your messages of inspiration and strength were eagerly received by all of us. Needless to say, we are anxiously looking forward to having you with us for the fall meeting in 1968. We may be talking to you before that time, however.

Our prayers are with you and your family. May the Lord richly bless you and keep you in His service.

In Christian love,

A. L. Haddox
