51 W. 52nd Street

Dear Sir:

Last night on your Austin affiliate, KTBC, you presented the CBS Playhouse, "Sad Bird".

My wife and I were more than impressed with this production and its message. Not merely because someone under 30 decided to become a straight person, but because you very dramatically showed that honesty as well as hypocrisy cuts the generation gap with all of its causes both ways. We salute you for this production.

But my purpose in writing you is not entirely unselfish. As a campus minister for a very sizable program on one of the larger campuses in our nation, and the largest in this region, I feel there would be a market for rental of this drama if you could make a 16 mm. film available. Is this in any way feasible?

Thank you again for such a direct address to such a deep issue of our times, and I pray that I may hear from you.

Sincerely,

David Malone

Dear John Allen:

I hope you saw the CBS Playhouse recently called "Sad Bird". I also hope that you were as favorably impressed by its message for potential use on the secular campus as am I.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I wrote to Mr. Ed Scovill. Would you consider wording a different letter suggesting a market for the rental of this drama? Due to the scope of your work on the secular campus, I have a great deal of respect for your judgment, and perhaps CBS might also.

Your brother,

David Malone
