Mr. John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

We arrived home safe and sound and have resumed our work here in Baltimore. I finally received your letter and I am frankly overwhelmed at the effect of the work you are doing. This is the bane of modesty. We are often so modest until we fail to picture accurately the work accomplished. I thought this was just an ordinary endeavour but it is much more than that. It is an open door, an opportunity to witness for our Lord in a most meaningful way.

Every act of relevant christian response bears a price. God's people however, have always been willing to pay it. John please know that you and your family are in our prayers.

We enjoyed being with you in Abilene very much. These are experiences Annie Jewel and I shall treasure always. Give our love to Sue and the children. Please pray for us.

Your brother,

Humphrey
