Dear Walt:

How thoughtful of you to write in response to our week-end visit to Nashville. There is no way to tell you how encouraged I was to see you there on the front pew. Thank you for not only coming but bringing a number of your friends. It meant a great deal to me and served as a real encouragement to my preaching at Madison.

The three-week Campus Evangelism Class will be taught at Abilene Christian College this next summer. I will not be teaching it, due to a change in schedule. I am asking the Dr. George Gurganus, director of the summer Seminar in Missions, send you full information about the program when it becomes available.

I am glad to hear the college-age group at West End is using Three American Revolutions. Frankly, I was surprised to hear this. Paul Brown had talked to me about it, but I really didn't believe that it would be used. I felt the material probably too strong for "the powers that be." Let me know how the study goes and share any interesting developments that come out of the class as the result of using Three American Revolutions.

We hope to be in Nashville again during the holidays. If so, I will get in touch with you. Thanks again for your letter. It was great seeing you last weekend.

Frat~~ernally~~ally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk,

You are certainly a man in whom Jesus Christ lives today!! You share Him powerfully with many, many people through your life, and for this, I, and thousands of others, shall forever be grateful.

The two messages that you delivered yesterday at Madison were absolutely wonderful. Everytime that I have the opportunity to either hear you or be with you, I am richly inspired; but the truths that you shared yesterday were the most inspirational, yet. Thank you for presenting Jesus Christ in such a powerful way. I was very glad that several of my friends were able to hear you yesterday for their first time. We have practically talked constantly about your lessons since then. We are so glad that you came, and we're looking forward to hearing you again.

If you have the opportunity, will you please send me some information concerning the three-week "Campus Evangelism" course that you teach at A.C.C. during the summer. I am very interested in taking that course if you are still planning to teach it.

The college-age Sunday School class here at West End is enjoying the study of your book Three American Revolutions. I am very glad that it was chosen as the text for this Fall's study.

Thank you again for all that you do for the Lord and for all that you mean to me. You have been an immeasurable influence on my life. Next time your in MUSIC CITY, U.S.A., I hope that we will be able to get together.

Yours and His,

Walt Leaver
