Dear brother Carr:

I can certainly appreciate the great concern with which you write. I, too, feel some of the same frustration and concern.

Unfortunately, I have no gospel meetings scheduled in California any time in the near future. I would like nothing better than to work with you in ^{some} special effort.

Please be assured of my prayers and deep concern for your situation there. I am sure as you and others continue to obey the Lord Jesus Christ that God will bless your efforts.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro Chalk.

I know you can help
us here in Orland.

I'm enclosing a part of last Sunday's bulletin.

Tell us what each of us must do to be saved?
So many here says, "I can't do church work." How can we convince them they must do more than going
to church twice a week
to be saved?

If you hold a Gospel Meeting
in Calif, let me know and maybe I help do personal work there.

May God continue to bless
you

Sincerely in Christ
