Dear Ruth:

I deeply regretted not getting to spend more time at the Southwestern Lectureship. I had family responsibilities in both Dallas and Shreveport that simply made it impossible for me to do more than spend a few minutes there. I regretted I didn't get to see you.

You, of course, knew about the mix-up on our getting books to the Lectureship for the Bowser Memorial Scholarship Fund Representatives to sell. I regret ~~it~~ but we're going to try to work something else out for them.

Thanks so much for selling copies of Three American Revolutions. I am so glad that the profit is going for a cause I believe in so strongly, and I am also glad to be getting rid of these copies because of the borrowed money I used to publish the book. I believe the book has truth in it that needs to be heard and I don't know of any other way to get it out and do more good at the same time.

Your order for another box has been sent. You should be getting them in a few days. Whenever you sell them you can send the money for the same amount you sent for the last two orders.

I hope that sometime in the future we will have the time to visit together personally. Give your husband and son my love and special regards.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

It was a wonderful school meeting. Here is the money for the books, send me another $4 it ^{✓hm} might take about 2 months or so to get rid of them but I will as soon as I can.
