Dear Ruth and Ernest:

Congratulations on such a quick sale of the first 44 copies of Three American Revolutions. I can't tell you how encouraging that was to me. I have just today written sister Mattie Jackson regarding the use of Three American Revolutions for raising funds for the Bowser Memorial Scholarship Fund. I hope that other individuals and congregations are able to do what you have been able to do. All I want to do is get this material into the hands of Christians and others who will read it and to pay for the cost of publishing the book, which I'm a long way from doing at this point.

I am sending, under separate cover, a copy to brother Bowdie. Thanks for mentioning it, and if you think of any others, let me know. I'll be glad to take care of it.

We have already ordered the next 44 copies from Carlton Press. You should receive them in the near future. Do not worry about selling them in any limited time. Just send along the amount of the wholesale cost, plus postage, any time you get them sold and I will send it to the Publishers.

Thanks again for this help. There is no way to tell you what a great encouragement it is to me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
