Dear Ray:

I understood your reason for coming forward, as indicated on the piece of paper you gave me. I, of course, did not know all of the background material that you gave me in your letter of September 23. I do hope that your response was handled acceptably for you. It was a real pleasure getting to see you again. On any future occasion when I can be of any help in any way, please let me know.

Many of the Highland members were thrilled to get to see you again. We appreciate so much your determination to achieve in spite of your handicap. It is very obvious that you have refused to let this handicap curtail your service and activity. I know that you are and will continue to be of great usefulness in the Lord's church.

We remember your subscription service and will send all our future subscriptions through you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk:

Maybe you did not understand the reason I came forward to ask for the prayers last Sunday morning. As you know I have alot of determination and desire despite my physical disability. And I am very fortunate to be one of the 15% that ~~XXX~~ is not mentally retarded of the cerebral palsy. I feel like that God put me on this earth in my ~~X~~ condition to show people who are not physically handicapped or maybe they ~~are~~ <sup>ARE</sup> that they can make it if they have faith into God-- KEEP THE FAITH, BABY. Paul, the apostle ask God to remove his "thron in his flesh" three times and the Lord told him that it was for his own good.

However, I want to get back to the reason of my coming forward. With my handicap, sometimes I give the excuses that I am handicap I cannot do things that I know I can do. The people who know me say that I do not know my limitations (if I did I probably would not be where I am today). Hope you understand this letter.

One of my faults, is letter-writing and my sentence structures

Keep in touch and write me when you read this letter, please.

*On Kin,
Ray Miller*
