Dear Beverly:

Your lovely letter came as a great encouragement. Thank you so much for the sensitive way you responded to the burdens that I presently am carrying.

I feel very strongly that Hank and Shirley will be blessed of God. I appreciate so much their great love of the Lord as evidenced in the way they looked at the decision to get married. They, of course, are in great spiritual need and will be throughout their lives. Please remember to pray for them.

I deeply regretted I didn't get to visit with you during our short stay in Little Rock. It simply was too short, and I was sorry we didn't have an opportunity to talk.

Please remember me in your prayers. We send you our prayers and love.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Hello Barbara,

Praise God! I love you John and send you a great big hug and love. Praise the Lord! He is with you always, as we all are in love. We all love you so much that when you hurt we all hurt and pray for your comfort. If it is God's will. Remember, to pray for His will no matter how hard it becomes, always we pray for your family, too. And now guard against sneaking. Be strong in Him. I heard about the marriage through gossip and just wanted to write and say I love you!

BEVERLY
