Mr. Roger Fisher
Broad Street Church of Christ
521 S. Jefferson
Cookeville, Tennessee 38501

Dear Roger:

I did regret not getting to see you during my recent visit to Cookeville. I was happy to get your letter, but concerned at the developments you describe therein. I know that it must be discouraging to be working with the church there at times, yet it has tremendous potential as you well know, and you have made unusual contributions to its growth. I am deeply concerned that you do not stop your college work. At all costs, you should take advantage of the opportunity at hand to get your degree, and I would think go on and finish your master's. This kind of preparation is immeasurable in its value for your future life.

I do hope that we will have opportunities in the future to work together again. I treasure our association in the past and look forward to such in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

I can appreciate the burden under which you would work if you attempted to tell area congregations about Herald of Truth. I think we are going to get Jack Sells to help us with this.
