Dear John Allen:

Thank you so much for your fine contribution to our special issue of the Twentieth Century Christian on the Holy Spirit. It will appear November 1. Twenty-two men have contributed articles to this significant issue and it will be much longer than usual. Consequently, we have taken the liberty to cut the articles down in length as much as possible. As you can imagine, with twenty-two of you writing there was considerable overlapping and repetition among the articles. Yours was a very splendid one and we are so grateful for your contribution to this issue. Thank you so much for your help.

Sincerely,

William S. Banowsky
