Dear Sir:

You have asked your listeners for a reaffirmation of our desire to hear the Sunday sermons which are broadcast on KFAQ here in San Francisco.

Personally, I find your sermons among the finest offered, and they have increased my spiritual knowledge a great deal.

I have received two or three communications from your local church in this area to join their congregation. However, I belong to another church already and am also enrolled in a bible correspondence course. I will say this most heartily, that if I had not already found my church, and if your teachings are a criterion of the church in this area, I would have beat a path to their door without further delay.

So, you know my feelings about your continuing with the radio broadcast.
