BIBLE TEACHERS WORKSHOP

June 13, 1966

Mr. John Allen Chalk
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

I wish to give you my personal thanks and that of Abilene Christian College for consenting to have a part on the program of the Twelfth Annual Bible Teachers Workshop at the college, July 25-28, on the theme, "Times Like These Demand Our Best." I feel that Harvie Pruitt and his Lubbock committee have done a marvelous job arranging the program; they have had a free hand in creating this challenging workshop. In my mind there is no question that it is the strongest program we have ever offered--and we have had some very good ones! The program committee deserves our congratulations and our thanks. I also feel they have honored everyone they have asked to be on this program; many worthy people were considered. After the wonderful programs Oklahoma and Madison have brought, Lubbock is on the spot. We are expecting over 4,000 people to enroll for the workshop, and I am sure that they are going to be expecting the best. I know you will rise to the challenge. Let us all pray humbly every day that God will use this workshop for the upbuilding of His kingdom. May it prove a blessing and inspiration to everyone who comes.

I am enclosing a room reservation sheet that I hope you will fill out and return immediately in the enclosed envelop. We cannot assign rooms to those not on the program until rooms have been assigned to all those on the program. Please take care of this at once.

Later I will send you an expense sheet that you may return to my secretary at the workshop or may mail back to us as soon as you return home. As soon as these sheets are in we will mail you a check for your expenses; we try to take care of mileage, motel, and meals (where involved), or public transportation cost. Each year the workshop barely breaks even; the college insists that the workshop must pay its own way.

Also I am enclosing a copy of the final program; please check your part or parts on it. If there is special equipment that you will need in your classroom, please send me a list of what you will need. I shall try to help in every way possible.

May the Lord's richest blessings be on you as you prepare for this great effort.

Sincerely yours,

Le Moine G. Lewis
