PERSONAL

Dear Rev. Chalk:

This morning at 1:00A.M. I arrived in Atlanta aboard a Delta Convair which originated at Memphis, stopped in Birmingham, and continued on into Atlanta. In order to make the Memphis connection it was necessary to fly a 727 into Memphis. The sky was gray and overcast and I really regretted not having you as my companion this second time through Memphis. However, we made it in the very first time we tried.

I certainly appreciated having your letter when I returned to the office today and also the transcripts you enclosed. If you are ever in Atlanta I hope you will give me a call.

Sincerely yours

John W. Cochran
