Dear Brother Chalk:

The city does not have a lonely position as "as place of frustration, despair, and cynicism"---I can think of at least one ad agency where this is prevalent.

Despite this however, an occasional idea rolls forth, try this one; Gwen either heard or thought up this line, "Is God Dead Or Just Missing In Action?" This seems to be a new slant for a topic. The obvious discourse would be that God is missing in the actions of men.

Could you write an article on this that we could submit to Christian Life or some other inter-denominational magazine?

If you will write it, I will handle the details of getting it placed.

Please let me know your reaction.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Best regards,

H. C. Zachry
