Dear Bro. Prewitt:

I have read and re-read your personal letter of August 30, 1966, in which you expressed your gratitude for my participation in the ACC Bible Teachers Workshop. I know that it took some time and effort on your part to offer this expression, and I deeply appreciate it.

I regret not getting to talk with you at length during my visit to Lubbock at the time of the Pioneer Park meeting. I know that you are doing a great job with the Home and send you my personal regards and best wishes.

Fraternaly yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

Thanks again and again for taking time to be with us on the workshop program, even if we did assign that particular topic to you. Of course, we assigned it because we knew that you would do a great job with it. But you fooled us, you did a masterful job instead. It was just what we needed and wanted. And while it was all good, there were two or three places that hit me personally just where it hurt and where it was needed.

Thanks,

Harvie
