Associate Dean and Director of Admissions
Vanderbilt University

Dear Dr. Beasley:

Enclosed you will find my application fee of $15.00. According to the admission application form I sent two requests for letters of recommendation to former professors at Tennessee Tech. I hope the receipt of them will fulfill the admission requirement of an additional letter of recommendation.

After looking over the forms necessary for financial aid at Vanderbilt, I have decided not to apply. I will be without employment during my three years at the Law School but choose to provide the financing in some other way.

If there are further items to which I need to give my attention in order to complete my application for admission, please inform me.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
