Dear John Allen:

We were sorry to hear that you would be unable to be with us for a meeting but do understand your circumstances. We will be looking for an opportunity to have you up for one of the weekends meetings you suggested.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the York Lectureship on May 3rd. Perhaps we could have lunch or dinner together and have a little while to visit. I'm to be there for the board meetings as well.

Thanks for your rapid reply. Keep up the good work. Wayne Baker was with us Sunday morning and mentioned being with you on Saturday at Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In His service,

William D. McClellan
