Dear Helen:

Thank you for writing about the change of our housing accomodation at Lake Geneva. We will be happy to stay in the room in Hansel Cottage. We have one six year-old girl and one three year-old boy so the room as described will be sufficient.

You certainly have a thankless task in arranging accomodations for the encampment. I know that many hours must be spent in writing many letters like the one you wrote us. Thank you for your willingness to help in this endeavor. I know Lake Geneva is a better experience for all of us because of your effotts.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Friends,

After going over the housing charts for Lake Geneva, I have taken the liberty of moving you from the Villa to Lancel, which was your second choice.

The Villa's have two single beds in each room, and, although a cot can be added, it would crowd the room.

Lancel cottage has six large bedrooms with bath facilities just across the hall. Each room has a double Becker bed, single bed & rollaway cot (a crib can be added if you prefer). There is a lavatory in the room with running hot & cold water. Also - a dresser and (I believe) a desk, plus closet.

Jack and I stayed in Grand Aur first year at Lake Geneva and found it very pleasant. I felt you you would have more room here and be more comfortable. Your room is E.

If this is not satisfactory,
please let me know.

Sincerely,

Helen Plummer
