Dear brother Pack:

Thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to write regarding our recent campaign in Los Angeles. I came away from this effort spiritually encouraged as a result of my fellowship with ~~Frederic~~ Frentice Meador, Jennings Davis and others who were directly involved in the services from night to night. In spite of what I considered to be very discouraging apathy, on the part of some of the preachers and congregations, the meetings themselves proved to be of great benefit personally.

Thank you for writing about the efforts. Your comments are deeply appreciated and treasured.

I send you my commendations on the work being done on Mission magazine. Your assistance and direction is appreciated. I am convinced that the magazine is speaking to an influential segment of our brotherhood.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

I was fortunate to be able to hear you every service but two during the recent Campaign for Christ held at the Shrine Auditorium.

I regret that I did not have an opportunity to see you personally and get to visit with you. I was talking with Jennings Davis about his visit with you. May I say that I thought you did a very fine job during the entire series. I know that it was a difficult task, and yet with great force power and ability, you presented your messages. I found them very stirring and informative. I heard many wonderful comments from those who attended and feel that much good was done. I think that in such an effort we have no way of knowing just how far-reaching may be the ultimate outcome of such an effort.

The city of Los Angeles, with its widely diffused population, and difficulty of transportation, offers particular problems in any such effort, and I feel that the total program went off better, much better, than I had hoped.

I hope that when you are back on the west coast on some occasion, we may have an opportunity for a time together and a real visit away from the crowded schedule of such a campaign.

Please accept my best wishes and prayers for a fruitful ministry for the Lord.

Cordially,

Frank Pack
Dean of Graduate Studies
