Dear John Allen:

As adequately as I know how let me express to you my sincere and humble thanks for being remembered in your prayers and also by your letter. Truly it was a shock and seemingly a tragedy that has entered my life, but there must be a reason for it and I am resigned to God's will.

It was good to hear from you and I am grateful for your remembrance and I do covet a continued interest in your prayers.

It would be a pleasure to see you and to visit with you sometime in the near future and if I do not get to see you before I hope to be able to visit with you briefly during the Lectureship at Abilene.

I have been in two meetings since Rene's passing and this of course has been good for me since I was very busy during those meetings.

Remember me kindly to your lovely wife and to your children, and come to see me if you have the opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

John T. Smithson, Jr.
