Mr. and Mrs. Danny Eubanks
104 Elm
Adamsville, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

Once again I would like to express my appreciation for all you did in making me feel welcome during our recent effort at Adamsville. I know of no couple more dedicated to the cause of Christ and more willing to work than you. I want you to know that I am deeply grateful for all you did before and during the meeting to make it a success.

Danny, I have sent your GA Book Club order into Nashville. I have even forgotten which book I marked for you. The important thing is that now you will be able to buy the books you need at discount prices through the club. I am happy that you are so interested in building the proper kind of library. It will be invaluable in the years to come.

I send you my deepest wishes for your health and continued well being as you work in the Lord's Vineyard.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
