Dear Miss Wright:

Thank you so much for your kind reply to my letter of February 1 to Pat Boone. I appreciate your taking the time to answer my letter even though it was not necessary.

Please convey my regards to Pat. I do understand that Pat will be assisting us in the Missouri State Fair meeting August 26.

I appreciate your sending me your telephone number, and I hope in future visits to the West Coast to have the opportunity of visiting with Pat.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr.Chalk:

Your letter to Pat Boone dated February 1 has been brought to my attention. I'm sorry for the long delay in replying, but this has been caused by Mr. Boone's heavy schedule.

I'm not sure if Mr.Boone has been in touch with you since your letter, but I do know that nothing definite has been arranged about the Missouri State Campaign, due to the uncertainty of his schedule. However, I feel sure you know that if it is at all possible, Pat will be there.

Please feel free to call at the above number next time you are in town, Pat would be very happy to hear from you.

Thank you again for writing, and I'm sorry for the long delay in replying.

Yours truly,

Maureen Wright
