Dear Wes:

I will probably get executed by the Highland Elders for granting you some time in 1969, but I can appreciate the desperate situation into which you are leading the Northside brethren. Some help must be forthcoming. I could arrange a meeting for Sunday through Friday evening in January, February, May, and June of 1969. If you could choose one of those months with a suggested date within that particular month, I will be glad to hear from you.

Due to my advancing age, I had rather hold the difficult meetings like this one as soon as possible.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
