Mr. S. W. Ekeberg
Protestant Chaplain
Wisconsin School For Girls
Oregon, Wisconsin

Dear Chaplain Ekeberg:

Thank you so much for your kind reply to my recent letter. I would like nothing better than to participate in your Religious-Emphasis Weekend at some future date. We are becoming more interested regarding our radio and television ministry in correctional institutions and would like suggestions from you as to ways we can make our programs more effective in this area.

I have written to Washington for a list of all the chaplains in federal correctional institutions. I hope to give a great deal of attention to this area and to this part of our ministry in the future. We receive a large number of letters from prisoners every week. Many of them seem to profit from our broadcasts.

Enclosed are copies of August sermons that I don't think I sent you in my last letter. Let us know when we can be of help to you in any way; and, above all, please give my regards to the men listening to Herald of Truth each Sunday on WIBA. Any encouragement you can give for the people under your direction to listen to our programs will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

Thank you for your letter and also for the copy of your radio program sermons.

I am sorry that you were not able to fit in a visit to our School in your schedule while you were in Madison but in the future, if you are in the area, I would be pleased to have you make our School part of your agenda.

Each fall we have what we call Religious-Emphasis Weekend here at the School with special meetings on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. These meetings are evangelistic in make up and maybe sometime in the future if your schedule would permit, we can invite you to participate.

The men at the Prison Farm really enjoyed the meeting and they are now faithful listeners to the Herald of Truth Program over WIBA, and there are several other men who are now listening to the program as a result of their interest and enthusiasm about your program.

It was a pleasure meeting you, and thank you again for your letter.

Very sincerely,

Reverend G. W. Ekeberg
Protestant Chaplain
