Dear Jim:

I regret being unable to be with you this fall but do appreciate the understanding way your brethren have worked with me on this problem. Your letter was the first indication I have had that I was not coming to Flint for the junior-senior banquet. You obviously know that any reprieve in my schedule is more than appreciated. I do regret not being informed before about this matter. Would you please instruct Gary Turner to formerly notify me about this. I did not need to come and happy that you have been able to work something else out.

I send you my very best wishes and hope for the congregations continued growth and progress.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
