Dear Brother Fry:

Thank you so much for your kind invitation to be a part of your teachers' meeting on October 10. Unfortunately, I will be in Kansas City, Kansas, the night you suggested, October 10. The only Monday night open on my schedule for October is October 17. I know you already have the event scheduled for the previous week and therefore regret that I cannot come.

If I can be of help at any future date with events like this, I will be happy to help. Thank you so much for writing. I appreciate the invitation.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk:

We are planning a dinner program for our teachers, prospective teachers and their mates for Monday evening, October 10th at 7:00 p.m. The program committee is unanimous in their request that you be invited to be our guest speaker. The dinner will be served at our Bible Chair building which is well arranged for this kind of program.

Brother Chalk, if you can arrange to come, you can render a real service to our teaching program. I have only been here a little more than one year, but I believe I can see that one of the greatest needs of our Bible School program is greater committment on the part of the teaching staff. I have read your articles in the Gospel Advocate entitled, "Committment: The Christian Way" and believe you can help inspire greater personal dedication on the part of our teachers. Perhaps your remarks could be directed toward greater committment on the part of Bible class teachers. I truly hope you can come.

If you would like information about this congregation brother Frank Cawyer can fill you in pretty well. As to paying your expenses, brother John Stevens spoke at our Spring teachers' dinner and he was paid $40.00. I am sure they will pay you that much or more.

Please let us hear from you right away. We need to finalize the arrangements as soon as possible. Best wishes to you and the good work you are doing.

Sincerely,

W. L. Fry.
