Dear Ed:

I am deeply concerned and interested in your proposed move to Gatlinburg. That town contains fantastic potential and challenge for an effective work. My prayer is that the Riverside brethren will ask you to do this.

Thank you so much for taking care of the enclosed matter. I do regret being 26 miles over the speed limit, but you know how it goes -- out run a few, get caught by a few. Thank you again for your attention to this matter.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
