Dear Charles:

I am so sorry to have to say now that the dates October 1-4, 1967, are taken. I would have to suggest September 24 through 27 for your consideration. Better still, another year might work out best for our mutual benefit.

I hope your visit to Cookeville is a pleasant one. My best wishes for your trip and your continued efforts in Fort Worth.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

John Allen Chalk, Minister
5th and Highland Church of Christ
Abilene, Texas

Dear John:

Thanks so much for your trouble and consideration concerning our meeting schedule conflict. We are glad that the meeting can be rearranged both for your good and ours.

The elders would like to confirm the first date you suggested, Sunday through Thursday, October 1-4, 1967. We will have a big Sunday day service and perhaps a class for the young folks prior to the evening service. We anticipate a great meeting.

I anticipate visiting in Cookeville, Tennessee. This will be my first trip there. Thanks so much for making it possible.

In Christ,

Charles Hodge
