Dear Brother Jones:

Thank you so much for your kind invitation to be a part of the Bible Lectureship at Oklahoma Christian during the week of February 5. I do have an opening on Tuesday night, and I will be happy to be a part of this lectureship. Your theme sounds unusually exciting, and I hope that I can make some kind of worthwhile contribution to the development of it.

I was not able to make out what the subject is for Tuesday evening, February 7. I would appreciate your writing me concerning the actual subject to be used. I do understand the situation involved in making arrangements for speakers. I am happy to come under the conditions suggested in your letter.

We continue to be encouraged by the work of Oklahoma Christian College. Thank you so much for the leadership you provide the lectureship. It will be a pleasure to work with you in this effort.

Enclosed is the requested information sheet.

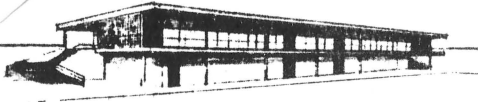

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

We are now planning our 17th Annual Bible Lectureship for the week of February 5-9, 1967, on the general theme, "Accepting the Challenges of the 20th Century." We believe that this subject will make a needed contribution to the brotherhood. We would be honored to have you give the Tuesday evening lecture, February 7, at 7:30. Further comments regarding this subject are enclosed.

We realize the numerous demands on your time, John Allen, but we do hope it will be possible for you to make this contribution to our lectureship program. I still remember your fine class contribution in a past lectureship. Main lectures this year will be given in the new Hardeman Memorial Auditorium, largest college auditorium in Oklahoma.

While not in a position to bear the total expenses for our speakers, we do provide a small honorarium in the amount of $30.00 in addition to meals on the campus and housing in a private home (if you would prefer an accommodation in your name at a near-by motel, please feel free to make that request).

I would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible on this matter, so that we might complete the arrangements for the major lectures.

Sincerely,

Bill

W. E. Jones
Lectureship Director
