

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

2-20-1966

From: Stanley J.A. McNery

Stanley J.A. McNery

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

McNery, S. J. (1966). From: Stanley J.A. McNery. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/5503>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

From

The Preacher's Desk

P. O. Box 223
Livingston, Tennessee.

February 20, 1966.

Dear John Allen:

While going through some old Gospel Advocates, I came across an interesting item, and thought perhaps you might be able to use it either in the pulpit or the bulletin.

As I read it I couldn't help but think of the short meetings that are now the order of the day.

Evidently Bro. Larimore began the meeting the first of January, 1909, and it was still going strong March 4, 1909. The thing that struck me as I read this news item was the strength that could have been in the Broad St. congregation if that spiritual zeal and desire had characterized the congregation all the following years. It seems that the denominations wouldn't have had much of an opportunity to gain on the Lord's church.

It looks as if the Broad St., congregation has recaptured the spiritual determination of 1909, and is enjoying the type of preaching that characterized Bro. T. B. Lartmore.

Faithfully,

Mae
Stanley J. G. M. Hayes