Mr. John Allen Chalk
Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tenn.

Dear Brother Chalk,

On behalf of the elders of the Oxford Church , I would like to invite you to hold a four day meeting for the church in Oxford sometime between the 15th of October and the 15th of Nov. of this year (1966). We would like for the meeting to be either Sunday through Wed. or Thur. through Sun.

We are sure that you would be able to do a great deal of good by such a visit, both in the town of Oxford and the University of Miss. We would want you to speak to our students at the University a number of times while you were here if it could be arranged.

We realize that you have a very busy schedule and know you have many calls. We do hope that you will be able to come and appreciate any consideration which you can give to our needs.

Sincerely,

F. Douglas Shields
