Dear John:

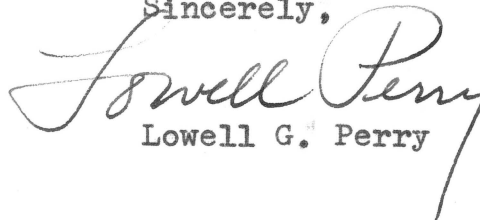

It was a pleasure meeting you and visiting with you for a few moments over the enormous steak at the Little Red Barn. I wonder if you ever got it figured out as to who was paying for it!

Seriously, I enjoyed visiting with you and discussing various phases of Herald of Truth and World Radio.

I know that we share our appreciation for Don and Marion Stark in the good work that they are doing. I have only known them a short time, but I enjoy them very much.

It was good visiting with you.

Sincerely,

Lowell G. Perry
