Dear Bro. and Sis. Pickle:

I appreciated Elizabeth's kind letter. It was a real pleasure becoming acquainted with you during the meeting at Wynnwood Hills. My wife, Sue, was happy to meet you also.

I regretted not getting to speak at the Fund Raising banquet some time ago.

Thank you for your gracious comments. I covet your continued concern for our work, and I send you my prayers and best wishes for your efforts there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk,

This note is so late I am embarrassed. But I hope "better late than never" still holds.

I am writing to express the thanks and gratitude for all the ladies at Wynnewood Hills for your wonderful and inspiring lesson you brought to our ladies Bible class. So many of our Christian women lose sight of the place God planned for them. Your week with ⁽²⁾ us was beneficial in so many ways. There is no way to measure the good you accomplished.

Durwood and I heard you speak at the C.C.S. dinner and enjoyed it so much. I met your lovely wife but couldn't reach you to say "Hi."

May the Lord bless you and keep you and continue to use you in His service. We look forward to our next meeting wherever it might be.

In Christian love, Elizabeth Pickle
