Gentlemen:

I have misplaced the receipt that should have been returned to you for ten shares of Midwestern Companies, Inc. Would you please send me a new receipt. I have received the stock and will so indicate that if additional documentation is needed.

Would you please check the processing of the recent purchase of four shares of Midwestern United Life Insurance Company? The stock was purchased some time ago, but I have not received certificates for it.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

Under date of 2-3-66, we purchased from you
50 shares of Continental Life Insurance.

As of this date we have not received the executed certificate and/or certificates.

Federal Reserve Regulation "T" requires that settlements be made for securities purchased on or before settlement date shown on your confirmation.

Please mail the executed certificates to us by return mail in order that settlement might be made on your transaction.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

TENNESSEE SECURITIES, INC.
