Dear Raleigh:

It is with deep regret that I must write requesting that I be relieved of my obligation to be the keynote speaker during "The Teacher Training Series" in Harriman this fall. During the past three weeks I have had to undergo a radical study of my relations with the local church here. Out of all of this has come the necessity of me working with this church through September, 1966, and involving a wholesale cancelling of commitments that I have already made. Even though you were gracious enough to allow me to come on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, I find it impossible to be able to work with you. I regret the late date but do beg your understanding.

I might suggest that you use James Vandiver of the Westwood Church in McMinnville as a substitute. Please give this your prayerful attention and convey my regrets to the brethren.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
