Dear Linda:

I don't know when I have received a more thoughtful, spiritual, and encouraging letter as yours. You greatly inspired me by taking the time not only to write but to be so penetrating in your remarks.

Thank you so much for the wonderful compliment that through me you were able to see Jesus. John spoke very clearly about this in his gospel at 12:33. This was my entire goal in our week-end effort.

I do remember you well. Thank you so much for not only introducing yourself to me but making the encouraging remarks you did during the week-end. My family and I were so happy to get to be with you and your fellow brothers and sisters in the Coliseum Park congregation.

Thank you again for taking the time to write. Accept with my love and appreciation the enclosed copies of recent Herald of Truth transcripts. I thought you might enjoy reading them and sharing them.

Your brother,

Dear John Allan,

I have taken this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for you. I am a member of the Coliseum Park Church of Christ in San Antonio, at which you spoke the 15th and 16th of the month. You provided me with a picture of myself that, in all possibility, I never would have had. It was truly a wonderful experience for me.

I find myself at a loss for words to express to you what your words meant to me. Or should I say, what Jesus said to me thru you? Many times I have heard your name mentioned in reference to a sermon, speech, or accomplishment, but I never imagined a man of God like you. I certainly hope that blessings will continue to flow toward you and maybe someday our paths will cross again.

I'm sure you will not remember me as an individual, but I do hope that you remember me as a person in San Antonio that will try to the best of my effort to be a better help to my community, my family and friends, my congregation and in general a better Christian. Again I must say thank for coming, and come again. (LOVE)

Thanks,
Yours in Christ
Linda Adams
