Dear Wayne:

It was great to see you on my trip to Los Angeles. I am so glad you are working with Pepperdine College.

I am so sorry I did not get to see you on your trip to Texas and I hope it was indeed a successful trip.

May the Lord bless you in your work in His kingdom.

Fraternally,

Dear John Allen:

Scuttle butt declared your decision to take on the campus responsibility in Georgia, and I was interested to have it confirmed by the article in the recent Christian Chronicle. I know that this decision was inevitable in that you wanted to, in some way, stay in direct contact with your work and yet move on through your graduate work as soon as possible. I was happy to hear that the opportunity presented itself, and I hope that you are pleased with what you find.

Concerning our work here at Los Angeles, I continue to be amazed at the cultural difference (mid-west versus west coast), and also at the pockets of "good old Tennessee churches" spread around in the California area. I am confident that it will be several months yet before we can be of maximum service here. We are taking every opportunity to learn as much about the people, the area, the churches, their concept of Christian education, their concept of Christian commitment in hope that this knowledge will be of ever increasing value. Please give my regards to the Michigan crew, should you make it back there before I do.

Be assured of my constant prayer for you and for your maximum use in the Kingdom of God.

Sincerely,

Wayne Baker
Associate Director of Admissions
