Dear Dick:

Thank you so very much for the additional, and unexpected, check from University Avenue. It was our pleasure to be with all of you in Austin and we do appreciate your consideration of us.

Thank you, also, for the very kind remarks about the lesson presented during the Bible class period and the worship. I was happy to have a part in your Bible School Goal Day.

I saw a great spirit manifested among the congregation, Dick, and I believe God is using you in a real way to make this possible. May He bless you and all with whom you labor to share what you have with those who have not. Please continue to remember our efforts on radio and television to preach the same message of a saving Jesus to a world that is crying for help.

Sue and I both say thank you again to you and Verna for a wonderful visit in Austin.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist

Dear John Allen:

In behalf of our University Avenue eldership, University students, and membership, I want to express deep appreciation for your contribution to our Bible School Goal Day. Your messages were exciting and inspiring to both University students and adults. You helped us reach a high level of spirituality. You helped us have more than 1100 in worship and 1047 in Bible Classes, the second highest Bible School attendance in our history.

John, I'm always thrilled to hear you preach Christ. You are an unusually gifted "prophet" of God. Your preaching has a charismatic quality that stirs the emotions and motivates people to be Christians. I am grateful for you.

Please accept the enclosed check, in addition to the check David presented to you, as a token of our deep appreciation for your messages April 13th.

Verna and I and the congregation are delighted that you shared Sue with us Sunday. We look forward to hearing you speak again soon.

Your friend,

Dick Daughtry
