Dear Richard:

How disappointed I was that you were unable to attend the Yokefellow Conference. I had looked forward to our getting to spend some time together in fellowship and conversation, as well as prayer and devotion. I can certainly understand the reason you were not able to get back in time for the conference. It was a great week-end that I know you would have enjoyed thoroughly.

I hope that the future will offer a time when we will be able to become personally acquainted. I found Dr. Elton Trueblood to be ever bit, and even more, of the good that has been said about him to me, both by you and others. I thank God for the week-end and for the deep spiritual impressions it made on my own heart and soul.

May this next period of study in your life be the richest and the most rewarding ever.

Your friend,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I thrilled at the story of Mary Dyer, told me by Dr. Trueblood. You must be humbled by being directly related to such a courageous person. May God use you in stirring ways in the days ahead also.

Dear John Allen Chalk,

I shall never be able to express to you the deep deep appreciation I have for your fine letter and the sermon copies that were to follow. I have been in the process of indexing the pamphlets so that they may be of an even better help to me. I have read only about six of them but I find that there is so so very much to ponder over that to read more than one or two a day is a waste of finely written words. Each of the sermons tells or asks something different. The many questions are profound yet answerable; the many answers are full and action provoking.

I deeply appreciate the excitement these sermons are bringing me. You can't possibly conceive the appreciation. My vacation here at Earlham starts the 14th of March and is over on the 24th. I am however flying back from my home in Maine early so as to be here for the Yokefellow Conference. I myself am a Yokefellow and this shall be my first Conference. I shall be here to help Dr. Trueblood keep things organized (although he has the capacity to keep the entire movie cast of Ben Hur in line if he had to). He is indeed a great man and he is to this point the most influential person in my life. I shall very much look forward to becoming acquainted with you at the conference.

My Sincere Appreciation,

Dick Dyer
