Dear John Allen:

It surely was good to see you and hear from you also. Our young people and adults thoroughly enjoyed your lesson at League City.

Our work is constantly showing signs of progress but we always expect greater growth.

You mentioned to me one summer at Abilene something about Mary Esther Johnson. We didn't have much time to talk but could you fill me in as to how she's doing, if you know. She surely has had a hard life as much as I can understand.

God bless you in your work and also in your future plans.

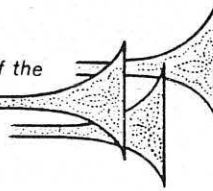

In Christian love,

Ron Hill

Dear Ron:

It was good to hear from you. I hope that the work in Houston is continuing to progress.

I have seen Mary Esther Johnson two or three times in Cincinnati during visits there; but I have not seen her in the last eight months and have no fresh news other than that she did remarry.

In Christian love,

John Allen Chalk
